Security Screening Requirements

Important Information for Applicants

Thank you for your interest in joining the Police Service.

Applicants who are successful in the interview stage may be required to participate in an enhanced background and security screening process as a condition of further consideration for employment.

As part of this process, successful candidates will be required to obtain and submit a current credit report/credit check at their own expense to the Human Resources Office. The credit report will be reviewed as one component of the overall security screening and suitability assessment process.

The purpose of the credit review is to assist in assessing a candidate's reliability, integrity, and suitability for employment in a policing environment. Financial information may be considered alongside other background screening components, including employment verification, education verification, reference checks, and any other assessments required by the Police Service.

Please note:

- The credit report must be obtained from a recognized credit reporting agency.
- Any costs associated with obtaining the credit report are the responsibility of the applicant.
- Instructions regarding submission requirements and deadlines will be provided to candidates who successfully complete the interview process.
- Failure to provide the required credit report within the specified timeframe may result in removal from further consideration in the recruitment process.
